Offering for Mass Intentions We sometimes get the question, "How much does a mass cost?" Our answer would have to be, "The suffering and death of our Lord and Savior." The information the person really wants is "What is the usual offering for a Mass Intention?" It has long been our tradition to bring an offering when we present a special intention to our Lord in prayer. In the Diocese of St. Cloud, the suggested offering was increased to $10 two years ago. That offering is to help support the priest who offers the mass, and when that mass stipend is sent to missionary priests, it is often the only income they have to live on for that day.

2014 Contribution Letters are being prepared and should be in the mail early this week. If you need your information before then, please contact the tri-parish office, 836-2143.

JONAH IN NINEVEH Jonah was a minor Jewish prophet in the 8th century B.C. According to the Book of Jonah he was ordered by God to leave Israel and convert Iraq. He isn't thrilled with the and runs away. Eventually he agrees to the project. He heads for Nineveh, the capital of Iraq. Amazingly he meets with a huge success in only one day. The pagans have more faith than the man of God.

TIME RUNNING OUT Saint Paul at first believed that the end of the world was near. Later he came to understand that the "end" really meant a transition to new world of Christ. While still in the former train of thought he encouraged people to become disconnected from the world. They should abandon marriage and worldly pursuits. He later changed this teaching.

Disciples and Apostles

"Come after me," said Jesus, "and I will make you fishers of people." Those are two functions, two sides of the same coin. Following the path of a master is the work of a disciple, student or apprentice. Going fishing for people, however, is the work of a person sent in the name of another. The Twelve were fishers of people for Christ Jesus. Are not we also both disciples and apostles for Christ Jesus? Yes. In his name we proclaim the Gospel of God. The time is now; God's reign is breaking in! We proclaim that Good News in word and deed to all because we love them. Text, James A. Wilde, PhD © 2000, OCP.

It can be difficult for us to imagine what it might have been like to be those fishermen casting nets into the Sea of Galilee. There you are, minding your own business, fishing as you did every other day of your life, only to have a man such as Jesus appear and tell you what to do.

Some of us might enjoy angling for sport, but few of us depend on fishing for our livelihoods in this part of the world. So, perhaps we could imagine what it would be like if Jesus stopped by our office, school or other place of employment one afternoon, passing on his way to a speaking engagement in the next town. The expectation of us would be the same -- indeed is the same -- as it was of Simon, Andrew, James and John in the early days of Jesus' ministry. We remain called to come after him, to follow his lead and continue the work of evangelizing in the world.

Reflect: How is Jesus calling me to show up and follow Him in the world today? How am I doing at this key expectation of being a disciple? How would I respond if the call happened today in the midst of the craziness of my daily life?

❓ Question of the Week: Please reflect on the following questions:

● Question for Children: What do you think it was like for the people in today's Gospel to be called by Jesus? What did they have to give up in order to follow him?

Question for Youth: At the start of Jesus' ministry, Jesus invites people to "believe in the Good News." What are some ways that you could be more open to the truth and challenge contained within the Gospels?

Question for Adults: If someone asked you, "To what work has Jesus called you?" how would you answer?
