All Saints

November 1, 2015

From the Pastor...

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ,
Feast of All Saints! On this day the Church honors all the Angels and Saints in heaven. It is a holyday of obligation. This day is a great family feast. It had its origin in the year 610, when Boniface IV dedicated the Pantheon of Rome to the Blessed Virgin and all the martyrs. It is in special commemoration of the millions of Saints in heaven who have not been officially canonized by the Church, and thus have no special commemoration during the year.

All Souls' Day. This day commemorates all the holy souls in Purgatory. It is a day for pious remembrance of the dead, and for offering of Masses and prayers for them. On this day as on Christmas, priests are allowed to say three Masses, for the souls of the departed, that they may be free from Purgatory.

Our Lord preached the Eight Beatitudes in the Sermon on the Mount. In this sermon He taught something new in the world. Where people had always striven for riches, honors, and pleasures, Christ praised the poor, the humble, the suffering. If we practice faithfully the doctrine of the eight beatitudes, we shall find the true path of perfection and be happy besides on earth.

What is meant by "the Communion of Saints" in the Apostles' Creed? By "the Communion of Saints" is meant the union of the faithful on earth, the blessed in heaven, and the souls in purgatory, with Christ as their Head. There is only one Mystical Body, only one Church. But this Church has three aspects: the Church Triumphant, the Church Suffering, and the Church Militant. The saints and angels in heaven compose the Church triumphant, because they have gained the crown of victory. The souls in purgatory compose the Church suffering, because they still have to expiate for their sins before they can enter heaven. The faithful on earth compose the Church militant, because they have to struggle ceaselessly against the enemies of their souls. The Church triumphant, the Church suffering, and the Church militant compose one Church united in Christ, members of a body whose head is Christ: "So we, the many, are one body in Christ, but severally members one of another" (Rom 12:5). (My Catholic Faith A Catechism in Pictures)

In Christ, Fr. Dan

All Souls Day Masses for the Tri-Parish will be Monday, November 2, 8:15 am at Sacred Heart, Freeport and 8:00 pm at St. Rose of Lima, St. Rosa.

Policies on Cemetery Flowers etc: According to the cemetery policies of our three parishes, all wreaths, flowers and other objects not glued or cemented to the tombstones need to be removed by November 4 (after All Saints & All Souls Day). After November 4, anything left will be removed and saved for a few weeks for those who wish to pick them up before discarding. Over the winter, items not glued or cemented to the tombstones often blow off and get buried in the snow, ending up tangled in the snow blower when clearing a path to a grave.
