From the Pastor...

Pope Francis will be making an historic visit to the United States of America in just a few weeks. Since his election in 2013 he has been in the news off and on. Sometimes positively and sometimes negatively. Almost every time the secular media writes about what he has said they pick and choose statements to incite people. Please remember this, if you take a text out of its context to use as a proof text it then becomes a pretext for something completely different. The secular media has done this many times related to topics and quotes from Pope Francis. Be assured of this, Pope Francis has NOT changed anything of Catholic teaching related to Faith and Morals. He cannot! I tend to encourage people, when there is something in the secular media that stirs up the people, to read what was actually said. Put the quote back into the context that it was said. This week Pope Francis announced that during the jubilee year of mercy that he is extending to all priests throughout the world the faculties to forgive those who have participated in abortion. Normally the priest would have to get the local bishops permission to absolve the sin related to abortion. However, Pope Francis is giving these faculties to all priests for the Year of Mercy! It is so all will have the opportunity, if they sincerely seek forgiveness, to know the mercy of God. I am looking forward to the Year of Mercy and will try to provide as many opportunities for the sacrament of confession as I possibly can. Please know that if you want to make use of the sacrament of confession I will always make time for you. To know the face of the Heavenly Father and the Love that God has for you and me is what Pope Francis desires for this Year of Mercy. Please Pray for Pope Francis' trip to our country that all will be blessed and be brought closer to God.

In Christ, Fr. Dan

From Deacon Rick...

God's Gifts Within Us - What Are We Doing With Them?

A Saint John's School of Theology and Seminary Theology Day. The Scriptures tell us that God has placed particular talents and abilities in every one of us, and that we are expected to do something with them. So how well do we recognize, develop and use these gifts at every stage of our lives? Join Bernard Evans, Ph.D., the Associate dean for Faculty and professor of theology at Saint John's School of Theology and Seminary, as he discusses living out our biblical calls to use God's gifts within us to help build a world that more closely reflects the love and mercy, justice and peace of God. September 11, check in from 8:30—9:00 am and presentation from 9:00 am—1:00 pm, Emmaus Hall, Saint John's University, Collegeville. Free event. Lunch provided. Registration is required: 320-363-3560 or sot-sem@csbsju.edu or www.csbsju.edu/sot/theologyday.
